

Human Resource Department

11th Week Report
6th July – 10th July 2026

Omega (3rd) Term
2025/2026 Academic Session

INTRODUCTION

The Human Resources Department remained committed to supporting the strategic and operational objectives of Glowfield International School throughout Week 11 by delivering essential human capital management functions that promote organizational effectiveness, staff productivity and administrative excellence. As a key driver of the school's workforce management strategy, the department focused on strengthening communication channels, enhancing employee performance management processes, maintaining accurate personnel records, supporting recruitment initiatives and providing administrative assistance for major school programs.

During the reporting period, significant attention was devoted to activities aimed at improving operational efficiency and ensuring the smooth coordination of daily Human Resources functions. These included facilitating official communication through the provision of work resources, engaging external security organizations to strengthen the school's security workforce, completing outstanding staff performance appraisals, updating attendance records for the Orchid Branch and compiling appraisal results for academic staff to support management's performance review process.

A. DAILY TASKS

1. ATTENDANCE DATA ENTRY FOR ORCHID CAMPUS

Updated and entered staff attendance records for the Orchid Branch into the attendance management system to ensure accurate documentation for payroll processing, performance monitoring and administrative reporting.

2. JOB ADVERTISEMENTS FOR VACANT POSITIONS

Prepared and published job advertisements for the vacant positions.

Monday: Teacher, Head of School, Head of Pre-school and Head of Primary.

Wednesday: Guidance and Counsellor, Chartered Accountant and Front Desk.

Friday: French Teacher, Art Teacher, ICT Teacher.

3. BIRTHDAY RECOGNITION FOR STAFF

Birthday wishes were extended to staff members celebrating their birthdays during the week as part of the organization's employee engagement and welfare initiatives. This gesture was aimed at recognizing and appreciating employees, fostering a positive work environment, and promoting staff morale and a sense of belonging within the organization.

B. ASSIGNED TASK

The following assignments were undertaken based on departmental priorities and Human Resource Manager's directives:

1 . COMMUNICATION WITH THE NIGERIAN LEGION

Contacted the Nigerian Legion to make enquiries regarding the availability of qualified security personnel in line with the school's security staffing requirements.

2. DOCUMENTATION FOR NEW STAFF

Completed the employment documentation process for Blessing Agabor (Janitor) and Friday Godwin Oyira (Pilot). The required employment documents were reviewed, verified, and properly filed to ensure compliance with the organization's onboarding requirements and to maintain accurate personnel records.

3 . COLLECTION AND COMPILATION OF ACADEMIC STAFF APPRAISAL SCORES

Collected, verified and compiled the appraisal scores of academic staff for documentation, analysis and management review.

4 . COORDINATION OF VIRTUAL INTERVIEW FOR NEW SECURITY APPLICANT

Coordinated a virtual interview between the Chairman and a prospective security personnel applicant. This included scheduling the session, facilitating communication between both parties, and ensuring the interview was conducted seamlessly as part of the recruitment and selection process.

5. ONBOARDING OF NEW SECURITY SUPERVISOR

The onboarding process for the newly employed Security Supervisor was successfully conducted. The employee was formally welcomed to the organization and taken through the school's policies, code of conduct, security operational procedures, reporting structure, work schedule, and performance expectations. Relevant employment documentation was completed, and the employee was advised on the importance of professionalism, confidentiality, punctuality, and adherence to the organization's standards.

6. STAFF ACCOUNT UPDATE

The staff account update exercise is currently ongoing for employees who do not have a Fidelity Bank account designated as their salary account. The purpose of this exercise is to ensure that all staff salary account details are accurate and aligned with the organization's payroll requirements. Employees were asked to provide or update the necessary banking information, and the submitted details are being verified before the appropriate amendments are made to employee records to facilitate seamless salary processing.

7. WELFARE FOLLOW-UP ON SICK EMPLOYEE

A welfare follow-up call was made to staff members who were absent due to illness. The purpose of the call was to check on the employee's health status, express the organization's concern for their well-being and obtain an update on their expected date of resumption. The employees were encouraged to focus on recovery and to keep the Human Resource Department informed of any developments regarding their return to work.

CONCLUSION

Human Resources Department recorded a productive and impactful Week 11 by effectively carrying out both routine administrative responsibilities and strategic assignments that contributed to the smooth operation of Glowfield International School. The activities completed during the reporting period demonstrated the department's commitment to maintaining high standards of workforce management,

Furthermore, the performance appraisal exercise continued to make significant progress during the week, with the successful completion of appraisals for the remaining carers and the collection and compilation of academic staff appraisal scores. The appraisal process is still ongoing, with the remaining evaluations to be completed in the coming weeks. This exercise continues to provide valuable insights into employee performance, identify strengths and areas requiring development, support informed management decision-making, and foster a culture of accountability, continuous improvement and professional excellence across all staff categories.

Overall, the accomplishments recorded during Week 11 reflect the Human Resources Department's dedication to operational excellence, strategic workforce planning, employee development and continuous organizational improvement. As the staff performance appraisal exercise progresses toward completion, the department remains committed to strengthening recruitment processes, enhancing performance management systems, improving administrative efficiency, fostering effective stakeholder relationships and implementing Human Resources best practices that support the vision, mission and long-term strategic objectives of Glowfield International School.
